EDITORIAL

"Do you remember . . . ?" It is such a simple sentence and yet it is a golden key . . . a key to a treasure chest of memories. We have many memories of our year at Col-Var . . . the hectic pace of Freshman week . . . the snake dance and the frosh introduction tests . . . the first bewildering day of lectures . . . 8:30 lectures, especially on Saturdays . . . those flowery, promise-filled election speeches . . . singing off-key in a bus at 3 o.m. . . . timidly asking a boy to the Wouneto Formol . . . the elaborate campaigns for the Queen Contest . . . the hockey and broomball games of Winter Week . . . the beautiful girls and the presentation of awards at Color Night . . . the dignity of Closing Exercises.

There are other memories tucked away in our chest too, memories of lectures and exams. These form very important and integral parts of our University life. In the future it may often be necessary to dip into our chest and bring out some little gem of knowledge. It may help us to control a classroom, impress a boss, solve a problem, or win the admiration of a spouse. No matter what its use, we can always turn confidently to our treasure chest to find it.

We, on the yearbook staff, have many other memories too, memories of cutting and posting pictures, discovering the name of a person seen many times in the hall . . . of numerous trips to advertisers, and cold feet and noses . . . of trying to find a writeup for a club . . . of vainly trying to assemble everyone for a group picture. Each of us has profited from our experience of working on the yearbook. It was tedious and rather thankless work, but now we look back on it with pleasure and satisfaction. We sincerely hope that you will enjoy this book, both now and in the future; that when you pick it up in years to come and glance through its pages, it will serve to answer the question: "Do you remember . . . ?"

THE PRESIDENT

DR. ANDREW STEWART, B.S.A., M.A., LL.D.
President of the University

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The University of Alberta in Calgary is entering upon a new stage in its development. The City of Calgary has made available to the University a spacious and attractive site; and plans for the development of the site are in progress.

Facilities on the North Hill have become increasingly cramped, as student numbers and the courses offered in Calgary have expanded. However, due to the devotion of the staff and the spirit of the students the quality of the academic work has been maintained, and there has been evidence of active participation of students in extra curricular activities.

We hope that the students enrolled during the years of growth and transition will have pleasant recollections of their association with the University of Alberta in Calgary in its infant days.

THE DIRECTOR

DR. A. L. DOUCETTE
B.Sc., M.A., Ed.D.

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

The year 1957-58 is a key or pivotal academic year for the University of Alberta in Calgary. For this year, we shall witness sod-turning and ground-levelling of our new site on the Banff Trail preparatory to a full building programme in 1959 and hoped for occupancy of buildings in the fall of 1960. Such are present predictions.

In the meantime we remain the welcome guests of the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art on their campus which "houses" the Southern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium. I wish to thank the staff of the University in Edmonton, the staff of the University in Calgary, the staff of the Institute at Tech., and the staff members of the Students' Council for the fine co-operation I have received this year from all quarters.

To Malcolm Bush, President of the Students' Union, and to his co-workers on Council, I say simply, "You have done all things well."

To the future: it is my hope that no bright, ambitious, scholastically-minded boy or girl will be deprived of a continuing education, and that this will be true not only in Alberta, but in our total Western democracy. Our intellectual capital must be recruited, and encouraged to enter our University faculties. Such capabilities must never be lost to our atomic age of advanced technology and rapid industrial progress.

SEVEN A.M.

When I was young I always heard
The worm was for the early bird;
 In fact, throughout my childhood years
 They dinned this proverb in my ears.
And so at dawn I used to rise
(Too credulous to criticize).
 But age supplies its consolation,
 The years have brought sophistication . . .
Now I just smile and shake my head,
And snuggle further into bed,
 And say, in accents loud and firm,
 "Who WANTS to catch the wretched worm?"

RENE ILES

SCHOOL DAYS

When glancing back upon the face of time,
I realize the days are fleeting past.
Not many months and we, the Junior E's,
Shall see our many hopes fulfilled at last.

We all have felt the struggle and distress,
The anxious moments, when before our eyes
Our great responsibility arose,
And we were challenged to be brave and wise.

But then the actual practice-teaching came,
The contact with the eager girls and boys,
And we beheld the ever-broadening view
Of teaching with its pleasures, works and joys.

And now, as we await with quivering heart
Our sought ambition, we must work with haste,
For time is short, and school days soon forgot,
We will be molding lives. God give us grace!

What joy t'will be to teach in this fair land,
Where five great freedoms give us liberty.
To make a happy pupil is our aim,
And thus retain our great Democracy.

MARY WEINS

BROKEN ICE

The eyes were staring cold and bleak;
My tongue was mute, I could not speak.
Their laughter echoed in my ears;
I held back all my bitter tears.

I knew the lesson was a flop.
I should have had the sense to stop
Before I lost all self-control
And lost sight of the final goal.

Then recess came and out I fled—
'Twas important that I keep my head.
To lose my poise and self respect
Would on my teaching then reflect.

The air was crisp, the ground was ice;
The clear blue sky did not entice
Me, as I wandered to and fro,
Heedless of the ice below.

The children played a merry game;
I stood and watched, my brain was lame.
I was an outcast—plain to see
They didn't want my company.

I turned to leave, my spirits low
What could I do, where could I go?
The snow deceived my tear-filled eyes;
I slipped, I fell, I did not rise.

I heard the laughter all around,
It somehow had a different sound.
The smiling faces held not scorn
My spirits lifted, my faith reborn!

I knew that I had judged them wrong
My fears had made my judgement strong;
No longer would my courage bend,
It took a fall to make a friend!

CLASS HISTORY

RONALD BULLEN
Historian

From Frosh Week to Finals, this university year has, in all probability, been the most eventful in our lives. Just seven short months ago many of us were enthusiastic high school students. Now, with a more mature and serious outlook, we seem to have undergone a hot house growth through club activities, social events, and exposure to more advanced study material, to young adulthood. The fact that Engineers were on the campus for the first time this year enlivened and complicated the whole campus picture.

Initiation to university was certainly no indication of the hard months that lay ahead. Frosh Week was a muddled daze of registration, snake dancing, and weiner roasting, topped off with a hearty trip to Banff. Some people got lost in the mountains, some fell in the river, and some sang their voices out, but all had fun.

Then suddenly we became engulfed by studies, and the meaning of the phrase, "Burning the Midnight Oil", became apparent as midterm exams quickly loomed ahead. Somehow, however, weekends were still free for events like the Wauneita Hayride, and dances sponsored by various campus clubs. One of the best of these was the Test Tube Trot, when the Arts Queen was crowned Varsity Queen.

The formation of a new club, The Political Science Club, was one of the more noteworthy efforts of the year. Too many of us are engrossed in our own small world of events to realize the momentous developments in the world around us. We certainly wish this new club the very best in the future.

When the "sacred" Engineers' flag flew in welcome to the Edmonton queens, it wasn't long before Education and Arts gained its possession. After subsequent recoveries and thefts, it was retained by the Artsmen until Color Night, when it was formally returned. The Engineers meanwhile had drawn a flag "with rampant ass" for the A & S, which was delightedly presented in return.

This final ball, Color Night, was its traditional success. Mr. J. James, from the Calgary School Board, delivered a thought provoking speech on the importance of education. Our director, Dr. Doucette, amused the audience with his steady stream of wit. A fine dance followed to wind up the social events of the year.

Our year is history now. Remembering rainbows of campus life, and forgetting the inevitable rain, there is happy retrospection for each one of us. But there is far wider scope for speculation of tomorrow. We are young people, with our unmoulded future yet in our hands. Many persons and events will shape our individual lives, but no matter whether we continue here or at other universities, whether we turn our hands to business, or to the gratifying task of raising a family, not one of us will forget our savory taste of varsity life at U. of A. in Calgary.

VALEDICTORY

PATRICIA HEALY
Valedictorian

Today we are turning the final page in another chapter of our lives. Before turning this final page which signifies, for some of us, the end of University, let us review what is written in our books.

The first chapter represents our pre-school life. The writing is dim for memory was the pen. However, we know that in this chapter our education had its roots. In this pre-school period we learned the basic motor, verbal and auditory skills, upon which further education was to be built.

Enrollment in elementary school marked the beginning of another chapter, that of our formal education. When we entered elementary school we were very dependent on our parents and teachers. As we continued through Junior High and High School, we became less dependent and more mature. Those of us who completed this twelve year chapter of formal education were then faced with an important decision; whether to enter the business world or to enroll at University. Out of a hundred children who enrolled with each of us in the elementary school, only three decided to enter University with us.

Those of us who chose University began a most important chapter of our lives, for here we have grown in knowledge, appreciation and social skills. Our knowledge, which was obtained from many sources, from lectures, textbooks and lab experiments, is essential to our future lives and continued educational growth. These paragraphs also represent an increased degree of independence and self direction for each of us. University necessitated revisions in our ideals, ideas, and standards, and this revision helped us to develop a more mature perspective of life. We entered the University as immature high school children. We are leaving it as confident mature adults.

To achieve the proper balance in our growth, and to provide the opportunity to develop socially, we have several paragraphs on extra-curricular activities and social life, in our University chapter. In these paragraphs we find valuable lessons in leadership, cooperation and the importance of hard work. Participation in club activities has increased our maturity, reliability and sense of responsibility, while providing memories that will live forever in the pages of our book.

Throughout the pages are references to our professors and instructors. They were faithful to and competent in their duties, but they were more than that. They went beyond their duties to guide and encourage us so that our growth and maturity was assured. They were not only instructors but friends, with our welfare at heart. For this we thank them.

On each of us, however, has fallen the greatest responsibility for the success of this chapter; this responsibility helped us develop increased maturity and confidence. The feeling of mastery when a problem was solved, the satisfaction when a relationship of ideas was discovered, the gradual development of a more mature point of view, all contributed to our growth. The value of the University will be more fully realized when we take our places in society.

For some of us this is the last chapter of formal education. For others it is merely an introduction, larger and more complete chapters will be written. But for all of us our year, or years, at University form a firm and basic foundation upon which to build a future in education or in the business world.

The remaining pages in our book are blank, but we can look forward to completing them eagerly and with confidence. We cannot escape the responsibilities that will face us. We in education will be responsible for the growth and development of future generations. Those in Arts & Science and Engineering will have equally important tasks to perform. Society will make demands which must be met with confidence, competence and patience. The University has done its part in preparing us to meet this challenge. The future is in our hands. We must prove ourselves worthy of society's expectations through sincere effort, and establishment of high ideals. The past chapters have given us a basic education which we must expand and continue, for education is never-ending.

It is our duty to develop the interests and knowledge which has been given to each of us. The knowledge we possess must not lie idle in the pages of our books. It is our duty to ourselves, to society and to the University to use this knowledge for the betterment of ourselves and others. Let us carry out this duty in such a way that it will bring credit to ourselves and to our University. Let us write the final chapters of our books of life with courage, imagination and integrity.

STUDENTS COUNCIL 1957 - 58

Council which met weekly this year, besides attending to student affairs, organized three dances: the Freshman Dance, and two Election dances. Revision of the constitution was undertaken, but though there was much work involved in Council duties, a good time was enjoyed throughout the year. Participation in one of the general assemblies provided an opportunity, in the fall, for the students to see Council as a body, as well as Dr. Gibb decked out in a top hat. At Operation Teepee, members of the Edmantan Students' Council were entertained at a memorable banquet at Linda Mae's, and a return visit is anticipated on Varsity Guest Weekend. Colar Night was organized jointly with U.A.B.

Representative To Council	Peggy Dickson

The dance sponsored by the E.U.S. this year was held on November 8 and called the "Education Blues".

The annual trip to Edmonton, Operation Igloo, was staged on February 8 and the return trip of Edmonton to Calgary, Operation Teepee on February 22. A new cup, named the Cal-Ed Competitive Trophy, was purchased in co-operation with the Edmonton Faculty of Education to replace the old "Rustic Cup."

Two students, Peggy Dickson and Murray Falk were sent to the Western Canada Student Teacher's Conference held in Edmonton.

Assemblies were held monthly during the Tuesday noon hour. Some of the speakers were Mr. Pannabaker, representing the Calgary School Board; Mrs. D. A. Hansen from the Home and School Association; Dean Coutts from the Faculty of Education; Mrs. Castleton from the A.T.A. and Mrs. Andrews from the Alberta School Trustees Association.

ARTS and SCIENCE CLUB

President	Wes Larson
Vice President	Art Johnston
Secretary	Pat Gillespie
Treasurer	Joan Rowbotham

This year's activities commenced with the Masquerade Ball at the end of October, which was well attended and proved a financial as well as a social success, Following this was the Annual Remembrance Day Service in November. The Arts and Science Club found itself responsible for the December General Assembly entertainment, and preparation began to make it even more of a success than the earlier Engineering achievement.

The Varsity Queen Contest got underway in January under the sponsorship of the club, with much excitement and many abductions. The judging, by a panel of professors with a popularity poll by the students, took place in February with the crowning of the club's own candidate, Gail Lewis, as Queen. The coronation took place at the Test Tube Trot, with the crowning by Caroline Erickson, the retiring Queen. Bev Sherwood and Peggy Graham were Gail's attendants.

The Arts and Science Club concluded a very successful and well-rounded social year with the presentation of Winter Week, when the winners of the Arts and Science sponsored Beard Contest were announced.

The motto for the Girls' Organization on Campus

The Wauneita Society had another very successful year. Its activities began during Freshman Week by sponsoring a 'big sister' movement whereby second year girls acted as big sisters to the freshettes. The formal tea and traditional initiation was also held during this week.

Activities included monthly general meetings, a hayride, and party. in October; the sale of Wauneita pins and University Christmas cards; organization of the Dance Club, Preview to Christmas, the annual Christmas party, and the successful Christmas benefit.

The social highlight of the year, the Starlight Fantasy formal held in January, was considered a very great success. The girls of Wauneita also took a very active part in the Winter Week activities in February.

This year the Wauneita lounge was, as usual, a very busy place.

In the Students' Council election, Udo Kaul was elected as President of the Men's Athletics, and Joan Coady, Engineer sponsored, as social can-venar. The Engineers provided the entertainment for the first General Assembly, offering hilarious entertainment which obviously met the approval(???) of the audience. The E.S.S. also held an off campus dance on November 23rd, at the Isle of Capri. This function was considered so successful that it was decided to make it an annual event.

The Engineers proved themselves the "Best Bloody Faculty" when they won the annual Red Cross blood drive campus challenge with a 100% turnout leaving the Class A Jr. E in second place. The Engineering faculty added life to the annual Campus queen campaign. While the Engineers chose Peggy Graham from Class A Jr. E., who won in the competition a position of lady-in-waiting for Queen Gail Lewis of the Arts & Science, they also 'kidnapped' the other lady-in-waiting, Bev Sherwood, who was entertained royally by the Engineers.

In the Winter Week Inter-Faculty Broom Ball event, the Engineers emerged champions with a crushing defeat of (7-0) over the Arts & Science, and another convincing (3-0) win over Education.

During the year, several business meetings were held, at which several guest speakers addressed the Engineers on topics related to professional engineering.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The philosophy of the Industrial Arts supports the idea that life can only be motivated and appreciated through self expression. Self expression can only be reached through manual dexterity.

This year the twenty-one members of the Industrial Arts club manipulated the traditional I.A. Waltz Night, the I.A. Banquet, a beautiful candidate for the Cal-Var Queen Contest, and promoted the elections of Arthur Day for president of the Students' Union and Glen Allen for treasurer of the University Athletic Board for 1958-1959.

Through the successful club activities, the members gained socially, morally and academically.

PEP CLUB REPORT

Since the organization of the Pep Club in November it has carried out a number of projects including a few firsts for the campus. Pom Poms were made for the cheer leaders, and as a follow-up the club sponsored a cheer contest to enlarge the number of cheers on hand. After a month's time two winners were chosen, and presented with tickets to Operation Igloo and a gift from Perry's Music Shop.

To ensure an audience and create more campus enthusiasm, posters were made to encourage the campus members to come out and support their very fine campus cheer team.

The Pep Club added much to the excitement of Operation Igloo. Pennants were made and distributed (for a fee) to the Calgary members of the University of Alberta attending the event.

As a further consideration for student news, the Pep Club thought of making and distributing a school bulletin but this idea gave way to holding noon hour shags where announcements could be made.

In conclusion the members would like to say that the Pep Club is in no way affiliated with the Kellogg Co. of Canada, just to clear up any doubt for the non-believers.

During the past term, the Newmon Club, o campus organization for Catholic students, has been very active. The onnual retreat was held in the latter part of October ot Sacred Heart Convent.

"Moonlight Serenade," a dance sponsored by the Newmon Club, was held on November 2 in the University Auditorium.

Under the guidance of the choplain, Reverend Father William Moran, C.S.B., meetings were held twice o month in the Students' Union Building. Communion breakfasts were held once a month.

A banquet at the end of March ended a very successful year.

POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

The first meeting of this new club was held on the 22nd of January, 1958, and meetings were held at regular intervals until the end of March.

The main objective of the club is the discussion of current political problems, whether domestic or foreign. It is particularly desired to emphasize the partisan nature of political issues by examining the views expressed by the various parties about them.

At the initial meeting, the following executive was elected:

President, Archie Stone; Vice-President, Bill Powell; Secretary, Mary Clandfield; Program Convenor, Bob Pottinger.

At first, discussions were confined to problems of club organization and the drawing up of a constitution. Finally, on February 27, 1958, the constitution (which is included in the '58 Student Affairs Report) was passed by the Political Science Club and then accepted by the Student's Council with only one change.

Meanwhile, in order to acquaint the members with the policies of all political parties, arrangements were made to hear pre-election speeches from representatives of the various parties. This goal was realized when, on March 22, a Political Forum was presented in the University Auditorium with the candidates for Calgary North present (i.e. Messrs. Harkness, Leavitt, Lane and Ellinson.) Although the crowd was small, a lively discussion ensued with our president chairing the meeting and club members providing a good portion of the questioning.

In summing up, this year's executive takes this opportunity to wish next year's club the best of luck in their future activities. May this club grow—and grow—and grow—until its membership encompasses the entire campus of the University of Alberta, Calgary.

STUDENTS' CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT

The Students' Christian Movement is an interdenominational club and is open to all who are interested in its program and tolerant of different viewpoints. Its purpose is to stimulate interest and thought in all students about matters of religious, social, racial, and international nature.

Activities during the year included group discussions, guest speakers and Sunday morning breakfasts. Guest speakers were Margaret Bratt, who spoke on the Moscow Youth Festival; Harriet Christie, Dean of the United Church Training School in Toronto; Helen Dixon, K. J. Charles, and Vince Goring, from the S.C.M. National Staff. K. J. Charles, a student from India now working towards his Ph.D. at McGill University, gave his opinions on the influence of Communism on India. Vince Goring spoke on two different occasions; the first on "Immortality," and the second on "The Christian and Communism."

Sunday morning breakfasts alternated between St. Barnabas Anglican Church and St. Michael and All Angels Anglican Church. Discussion at these breakfasts centered around St. Paul's epistle to the Ephesians.

A box social was held at the beginning of the year. Students from Tech and University attended.

Some of our members attended the Fall Conference at Pigeon Lake, and the Christmas Conference at Weyburn, Sask.

INTER-VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Colgory Inter-Vorsity Christian Fellowship has enjoyed a full program this year. "Freshmon Round-up", a Western party, was our first gathering. Our weekly meetings in Room 201 featured special speakers as well as programs planned by the group members. Some of the most popular of these were the informal "hymn-sings." We were privileged to hear addresses by both the Director of the Tech, Mr. Wood, and our own Director, Dr. Doucette, on the topic of Christianity on campus. The Christmas season inspired a carol program in the auditorium. In January, Mr. J. C. Curry, of Pioneer Ranch Camp, spoke on teen-age leadership and showed slides of this popular youth camp. The Moody Science Film, "Time and Eternity," was shown in the auditorium in February.

Gatherings with the Edmanton V.C.F. during both Operation Teepee and Operation Igloo were especially enjoyed, "Hearty" good fun was on the menu for February 14 at our Valentine's Party. The final program for this year is the spring bonquet, March 22, 1958, a fitting climax to a good year in Inter-Vorsity Christian Fellowship.

THE RADIO CLUB

Cal-Var's radio society has just completed another very successful year under the capable direction of Mr. Bruce Northam. This year we presented a variety of half-hour programmes over CFAC, each Wednesday evening at 7:30.

We tried during the year to centre each programme around some aspect of life on Cal-Var's campus. Our major works for the year included a series of interviews entitled "Meet the Professors," in which we talked with the various staff members; a Disc Jockey series in which various students on campus played hit tunes; a Good Music series where Classical music lovers had a chance to play their favorites; and several panel discussions, including one composed entirely of professors.

Another bit of variety was added to Varsity Vista this year, when the Radio Society and the Drama Club combined their talents to produce several plays. We also devoted a programme to the history and development of the University as one of our major institutions.

We would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere thanks to the management of CFAC for giving us the use of all their facilities and so graciously granting us our weekly half-hour air time. We would also like to extend our thanks to the many students on campus who contributed to the success of each programme by giving so freely of their time.

THE JUNIOR "E" MOCK TRACK MEET

COMMITTEE:

Secretary	Penny Keuvelaar
Entertainment	Marg Gibson
Accommodation	Jim Jenkins
Clean Up	Marion Harris
Food	Norma Fraser
Faculty Adviser	Miss Newton

Classes A & B, as an aid to better acquaint the students of the Junior Elementary faculty, sponsored a Mock Track Meet which was staged on January 23. Students from all Jr. E. classes, and their professors participated in seven events, which ranged from the threading of a needle while balanced on a tomato can, to shuffleboard. Each team competed in charades representing a given television commercial. Each proved riotously humorous.

The track meet was closed with a snake down to the snack bar where the participants were treated to 'spudnuts' and pop.

The evening so met the approval of the staff, and was such a success that the Committee in charge hope that it can be held annually as a prime method of getting all classes of the Jr. Elementary acquainted.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL

This has been one of the most successful years for Cal-Var' Men's Volleyball team. After entering the league which consisted of Varsity, Tech, Maunt Royal, YMCA, Berian Bible College, Alberta Bible College, the team won eight games out of ten in a double round-robin with one of the losses to the YMCA. On March 8, the Team entered the Alberta open Volleyball Championship which was held in Currie Barracks. A number of exhibition games were also played. One of the greatest losses this year was however, to Edmonton. This might have been attributed to many factors, i.e. Brian "Bashful" Scharf entered the beard contest and kept tripping over his beard, the star of the team, Wes Larson, not only forgot his running shoes, but also got a uniform too large for him, thus losing his pants; Doug "Loverbay" Paile fell in love at the beginning of the year and wasn't worth a darn after 7:00. Tom "Spiker" Sterenberg kept tripping over the centre line and falling into the net, while Mel "Powerhouse" Fisher neglected to get his hair cut and it kept falling over his eyes; Rich "the Runt" Old broke his glasses and couldn't distinguish between uniforms, therefore playing half the games for the other side; Keith "the Server" Stagg kept trying to hit the referee with his slingshot and Delaine "the Goldfish" Ockey couldn't keep his eyes from the girls; Erdman "Swede" Neufeld kept putting a hole in the net with his powerhouse serve, and Ben "Mad Dog" Penner couldn't find the gym.

All in all the Varsity V's had a very good season.

THE HOCKEY CLUB

The hockey team enjoyed a good season. Backed by the prolific scoring of "Old Poison" Dunn and Dexter "Bum Bum" Northfield (his usual position) the Cal-Var team placed second in the inter-collegiate league. Other forwards included such stalwarts as Bob Lamont, Eric Enns and Len Farries. John the "Ricket" Walker scored one goal too, thereby compensating somewhat for the loss of Tom Maguire. Backed by the three defensive pillars of Bob Lant, Wes Larson (who concentrated on female spectators) and Art "Shotgun" Johnston (who couldn't hit the net), the team won over Edmonton Education 8-5 in the big game of the year. In this encounter, Rich "the Gump" Old turned in a brilliant net minding display and also some interesting post game comments. Despite bting self coached and managed the team never gave up hope or stopped fighting for U.A.C.

CURLING

The Curling Club had a very successful season this year with twelve teams taking part in our regular square draw. We also had a liberal number of spares for those people who occasionally couldn't make it. Three people were elected to take part of the Curling Club, they were: Don Green, President; Dave Bruce, Vice President; Valerie Bourdier, Secretary-Treasurer. Don Green also held the position of draw master. The teams' abilities were fairly close and no one team found things entirely going its way. At this point there are two teams tied for first place; they are: Dave Bruce and Don Green. On Colour Night, March 21st, the winning team will be presented with a large trophy and smaller trophies to each team player.

We feel that everyone who joined our club this year certainly enjoyed themselves and are certain that it was well worth the small fee the members had to pay.

BADMINTON

The Badminton Club did not become organized until the latter half of the term. A tournament with the Calgary Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association was held on February 28th and March 3rd.

TUMBLING

The small, but lively Tumbling Club, under the direction of Marg Tattersall, met on Thursday nights in the Gym. The enthusiastic group made use of nearly all facilities, including the newly acquired trampoline on which they progressed quite favorably.
